

POWERING Student Learning

INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

for School Teams, Principals, Art Specialists, and Classroom Teachers

Welcome

Dennis Inhulsen, NAEA President-Elect; Mark Terry, NAESP President

1:00 - 1:45 pm | KEYNOTE

The Next Generation Arts Standards: The Arts at the Heart of Learning | Fort Worth Ballroom 6

Jay McTighe, Educator/Author

The Next Generation Arts Standards project is using the Understanding by Design Framework to guide its work. This session explores the key UbD elements in the Standards and considers how the new Arts Standards can connect with state standards to promote engaging and meaningful learning.

2:00 - 2:45 pm | Choose a Concurrent Session

Concurrent Session I: Creativity as a Basis for Whole School Reform | Fort Worth Ballroom 6

Jean Hendrickson, Executive Director, Oklahoma A+ Schools

Susan Gabbard, Director of Fine Arts, Oklahoma City Public Schools

Rosalynn Wade, Program Director, Oklahoma A+ Schools

Sandra Kent, Principal, Phillips Elementary School, Bartlesville, OK

Explore what creativity means within learning communities.

Concurrent Session II: Arts-Infused Education Builds Literacy Skill | Fort Worth Ballroom 7

Cheri Sterman, Director of Education and Child Development, Crayola LLC

Kimberly Buskirk, Art Teacher, Andrea Luna, Literacy Specialist

Celia Fleischman, Principal Gardens Elementary School, Pasadena, Texas

Kathy Wagonfield, Principal and Terry Haynes-Toney, Visual Art Instructor,

Ridgeway Elementary School, Hamilton, Ohio

"Championing Creative Alive Children" Grant winning schools share innovative ways to link art to common core literacy standards and improve student achievement.

2:45 - 3:00 pm | Break

3:00 - 3:45 pm | Choose a Concurrent Session

Concurrent Session I: Seed Stories—Exploring Your Personal Leadership Strengths and Planning Your Pathway | Fort Worth Ballroom 6

Dennis Inhulsen, NAEA President Elect

Patterson Elementary School Creative Leadership Team

Susan Gabbard, Director of Fine Arts, Oklahoma City Public Schools

Connect with an autobiographical exploration and participate in a creative writing and visual arts experience.

Concurrent Session II: Champion Creatively Alive Children – Build Creative Leadership Teams to Increase School-Wide Creative Capacity | Fort Worth Ballroom 7

Sandra Kent, Principal, Phillips Elementary School, Bartlesville, OK

Erinn Rakes, Art Teacher, Phillips Elementary School, Bartlesville, OK

Dr. Donna Jackson, Principal, Jackson Elementary School, Jonesboro, GA

Molly Knowles, Head, Fine Arts Department, Jackson Elementary School,

Jonesboro, GA; Cheri Sterman, Director of Education and Child Development, Crayola

Hear from Principals and Art Teachers who have formed Creative Leadership Teams. Share their case studies, and how the arts can be the foundation of Professional Development, School Strategy, and School Culture.

3:45- 4:00 pm | Break

4:00 - 4:45 pm | Keynote

Building Community-Wide Support for Arts Education and Implementing a Robust Plan | Fort Worth Ballroom 6

Mario Rossero, Chicago Public Schools

Explore this inspiring case study of how art educators partnered with the City of Chicago's Department of Cultural Affairs to build broad based support for expanding art throughout Chicago Public Schools.

4:45-5:30 pm | Keynote

Reinvesting in Art Education | Fort Worth Ballroom 6

Rachel Goslins, Executive Director of the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities

Gain insight on the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities programs that advocate for increased art education in schools, including the Turn Around Art Initiative.

5:30 - 6:00 pm | Group Discussion

Staying Connected—Form a Network of Educators Who Champion Arts in Schools | Fort Worth Ballroom 6

NAEA/NAESP/Crayola

What would a Community of Educators Committed to Arts-Rich Schools look like and do to help keep the conversation going throughout the year? How can we help to facilitate the sharing of success stories, planning tools, and keep the momentum on Creative Leadership Team Capacity Building moving forward?