

Generations

An Evening of Remembrance

April 6, 2013 FSUS

Setting up

Dinner guests arrive

Student artwork on display

Cards of Hope for sale

Student artwork is projected large on the screens

Dinner is served

National Art Honor Society serves our guests

Jazz ensemble entertains

Ela has dinner with family

Ready to begin the show

Mixed HS Chorus and Elementary “Singing Seminoles”

Judge Nina Richardson welcomes...

...followed by Barbara Goldstein
from HERC

“Lerner’s Learners” gifted elementary class begins the first of several vignettes.

After the story of Brundibar was explained, the Choruses perform the “Victory Song.”

An elementary school puppet of a 7 foot tall cat comes out to invite Ela to join in with the Victory song!

Ela is given the floor to speak to the audience.

10th grader
Carina Krehl presents Ela with a portrait of her as young woman.

NAHS and Ela Weissberger

People will not look forward to posterity, who never look backward to their ancestors.

“What sustained us was culture.”

I laugh at people who say it is a luxury.”

--Hana Pravada

