

Arts Day

Engaging Your Entire School Population in the Arts during an Entire School Day

Find out how you can actively advocate for the arts by engaging your entire student body in arts activities all day. Examine schedules, resources, small and large group events.

John Krenik

Nauset Regional Middle School

Orleans, MA

National Art Education Convention

Friday, March 2, 2012

Arts Day Resources

Workshop Presenters

Local and Regional Art Associations (visual artists: all types of painters, collage, jewelry, graphic arts, sculpture)

MAEA/NAEA conventions and conferences (video art,

Local theater groups (performing arts, dance, theatre, improvisation, comedy)

Local Gyms (yoga, yogalates, zumba, martial arts)

Your school: Many of your colleagues/and/or their spouses as well as students/and/or their parents/guardian/sibling may have artistic talents they are willing to share

Contacts through other local groups such as churches, government, local trade, industries, restaurants

Junk mail brochures have contacts through their contacts

Local Art Museums, Performing Art Centers, Art Centers, and of course, the internet

Funding

Local, regional, and national banks (on website find donation/support under something like “in our communities”)

Local, State, and Regional Cultural Councils

Foundations local/regional/national

NAEA <http://www.arteducators.org/grants/national-art-education-foundation>

National Endowment for the Arts <http://www.nea.gov/grants/apply/Artsed.html>

National Educational Organizations (ASCD, KDP, PDK)

Donations from parents, students and community