

The Second Annual Trashy Fashion Show!

“That’s Entertainment”

Sponsored by
The National Art Honor Society

Rules and Regulations:

- This must be serious FUN!
- That’s Entertainment is the theme. Any design must be based on movie, music, play, etc. This is really open to interpretation so have fun but do not make your outfit exactly like a video!
- Anyone attending SPHS can participate. (Alumni Welcome)
- The item you design and make must be wearable like clothing, hats, jewelry, shoes, etc.
- 75% of it must be made from discarded and recyclable items. Examples of items: newspaper, books, shopping bags, garbage bags, old fabric, cardboard, plastic anything, aluminum cans, etc. Warning* Do not make your dress totally out of duct tape!
- You may work alone or with a partner.
- Someone must be able to wear it as we will have a runway show.
- You may sew, stitch, tape, hot glue, glue, rivet, staple, whatever it takes to hold the piece together.
- The show will be March 23rd but you should be planning, collecting, and working now!
- Entry Fee- $5.00. to cover photography and costs of awards.
- Each entry will have a photo shoot.
- Video will be available.
- I promise we will have a great time!

- Any Questions? See Mrs. Ali room 13